

USING A REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST

Benefits

- Trusts are generally easier than a will to administer at death, especially if the grantor has property in multiple states
- Trusts may offer advantages that durable powers of attorney can't in case of incapacity
- Trusts offer privacy that probate can't offer

Drawbacks

- Trusts are generally more expensive to create than a will
- Cost savings are not as great in states that have a streamlined probate process
- Trusts can be confusing or unsettling, because the legal language can be complex and hard to understand
